

APPENDIX 4: List of key databases which were cancelled during 2010/2011

Category 1: University law school libraries

Database cancelled	Reason for cancellation
BNA Labour Law	Price excessively high
Elements of Justis	Cost and relevance to users
Intelleconnect (formerly CCH) Business & Finance	Special academic pricing ended plus low use
InterAM database	Less need for Latin American law, expensive
Isinolaw	Coverage and timeliness of information has been questioned
Justcite	Ceased to be available freely
JustCite	Now available in LawNet
Kluwer Law International	Information available on Hein
Lebanese jurisprudence in Arabic language	There's no updating
Legaltrac	Duplicated
Recueil des Cours with Brill	Moved to Hein
SDC Platinum	Prohibitive cost
UKOP	To cover subscription to i-law
World Law reform	Free online

Category 2: Research institute libraries

Database cancelled	Reason for cancellation
Justcite	Not used
Kluwer Law Online	Too expensive

Category 3: Court libraries

Database cancelled	Reason for cancellation
Constitutions illustrated, Beck, Juris Classeur, ILP, IFLP	Cut in budget
Factiva	Expense for the amount used not justified. Looking at cancelling Lexis in the coming year
Index to Legal Periodicals	Not used enough and platform change
Insurance law and practice	Now only online
LexisNexis	Costs

Category 4: Government department libraries

Database cancelled	Reason for cancellation
Jstor	Budget constraints and evidence of use
Oxford Scholarship Online	No reason given

Category 5: Law firm libraries

Database cancelled	Reason for cancellation
Justis	Material duplicated on Westlaw
Scottish property network	Cost saving
West IP and deal Monitor	Switch to another service
Westlaw Business	Too expensive

Category 6: Bar / Law society libraries

No databases reported as cancelled in 2010/2011

Category 7: Public libraries

No databases reported as cancelled in 2010/2011

Category 8: Other libraries

Database cancelled	Reason for cancellation
Kluwer - international encyclopaedia of laws	Costs
Lexis UK	Licensing conditions
Springerlink	Budget constraints

