

The Sir William Dale Centre for Legislative Studies is pleased to announce the Fifth Law Reform Project Workshop

Parliamentary Scrutiny of Law Reform: Procedures, bodies and methods

Monday
4th November 2019 14:00-17:30

Institute of Advanced Legal Studies
Charles Clore House
17 Russell Square
London WC1B 5DR

This event is FREE but advance booking is required: https://ials.sas.ac.uk/events/event/20098

Enquiries:
IALS.Events@sas.ac.uk

ADMISSION FREE
ALL WELCOME

ials.sas.ac.uk

Opening welcome and introduction

Enrico Albanesi, Associate Professor of Constitutional Law, University of Genova, and IALS Associate Research Fellow, University of London
Jonathan Teasdale, IALS Associate Research Fellow, University of London
Leaders of the Project

Parliamentary scrutiny of law reform. A House of Lords' perspective

Andrew Makower, Clerk of Legislation, Legislation Office, House of Lords
John Turner, Clerk of Legislation, Legislation Office, House of Lords

Parliamentary scrutiny of law reform. A House of Commons' perspective

Liam Laurence Smyth, Clerk of Legislation, Public Bill Office, House of Commons

Parliamentary follow-up of Law Commission Bills. An Irish Law Reform Commission's perspective

Ciarán Burke, Former Director of Research, Irish Law Reform Commission

Parliamentary scrutiny of law reform in Albania

Oriola Sallavaci, Essex University Law School

Law reform and the role of Parliaments in the Arab region

Sara Razai, Judicial Institute, Faculty of Laws, University College of London