

LEGISLATIVE DRAFTING COURSE 2015
COURSE AND LECTURE EVALUATION REPORT

A. COURSE EVALUATION FORM

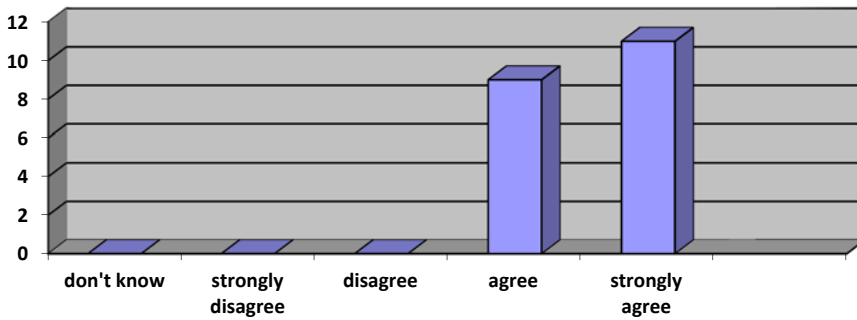

The syllabus was distributed to us in the beginning of the course

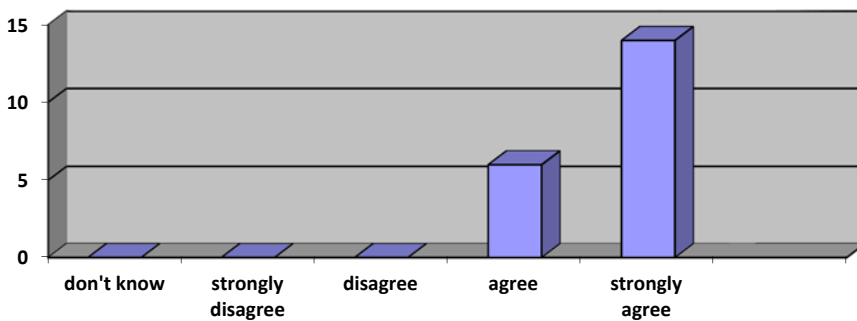

The course taught me new things and expanded my understanding of the discipline

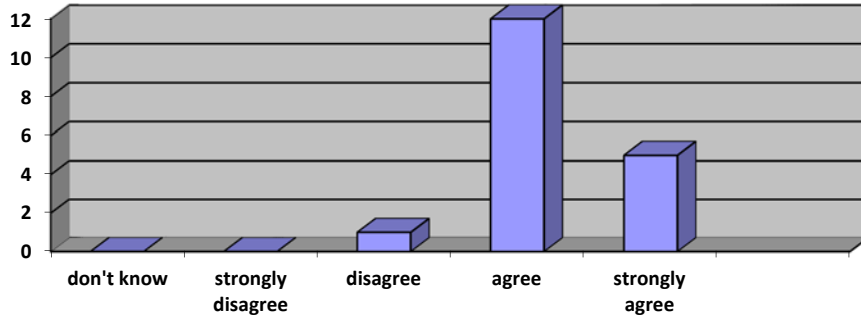

The course developed my skills

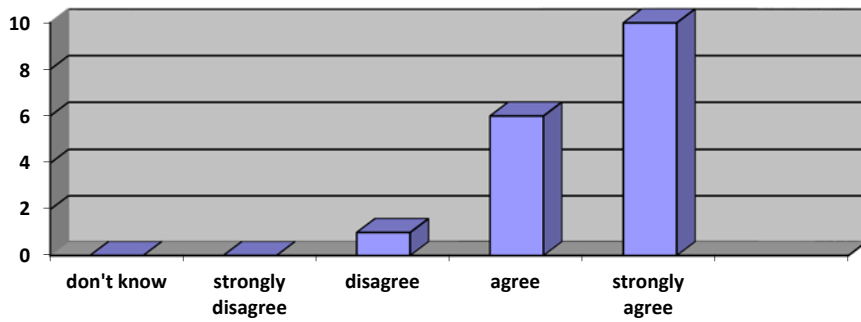

I felt encouraged to participate

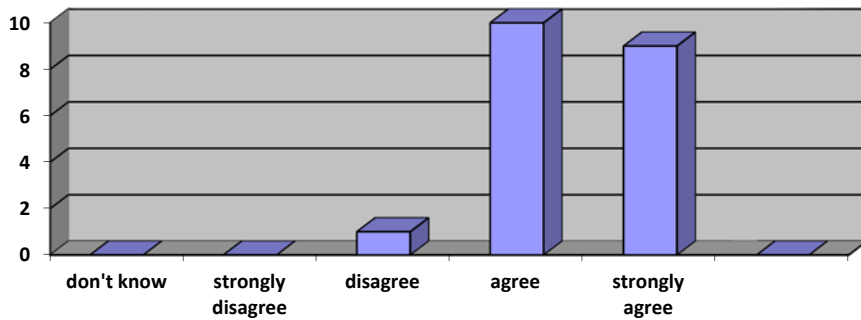

The volume of the work was bearable

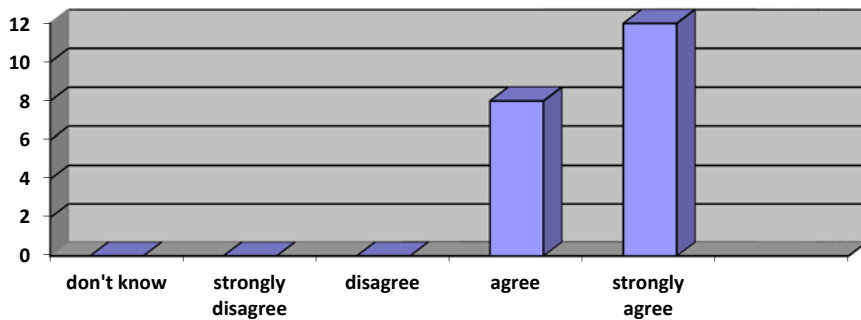

The course was adequately intensive

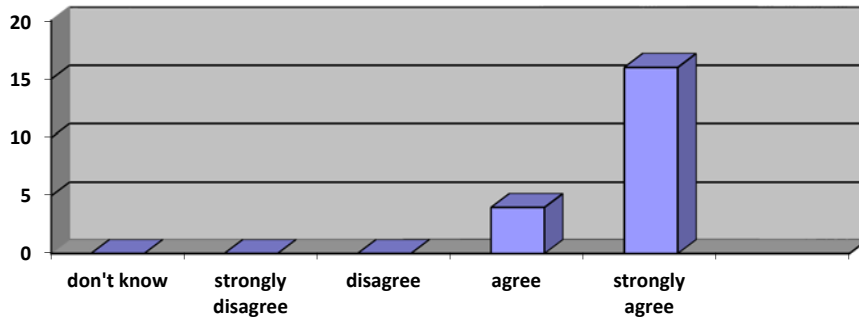

Visits to government departments allowed me an insight into the drafting work of the UK government

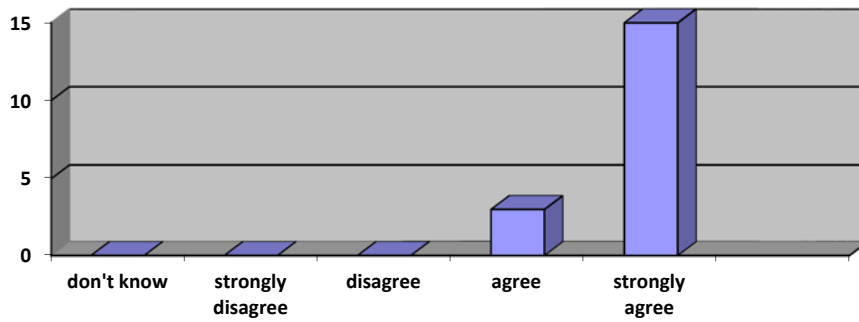

Contact with other participants helped my networking

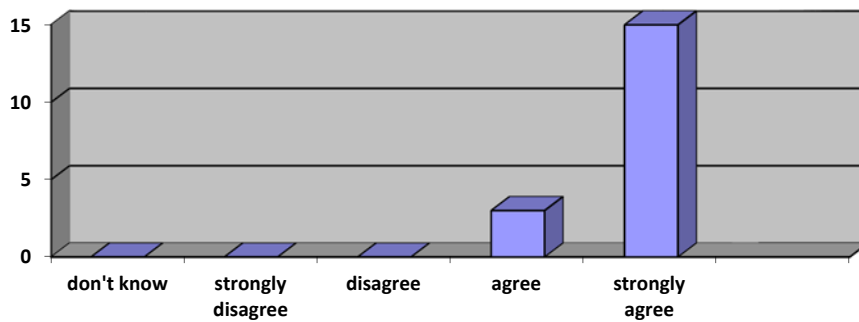

I felt welcome and valued

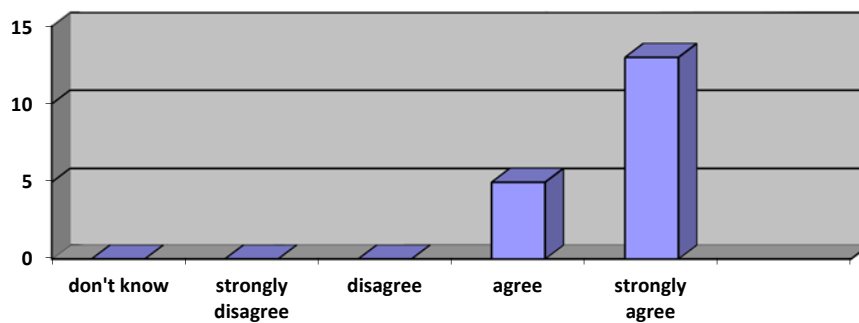

The Course was well organised

I found the library/ internet facilities of the IALS useful

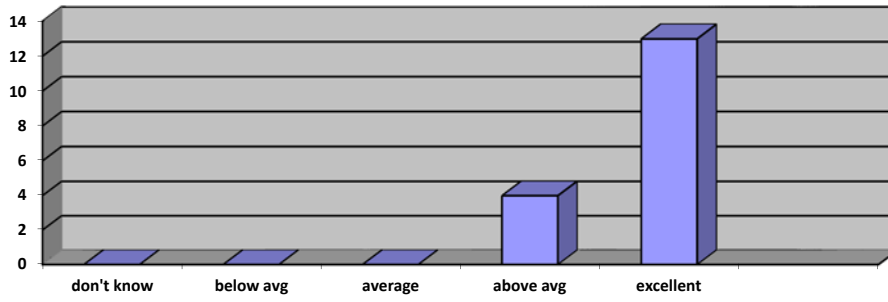

In general, I consider the course worth following

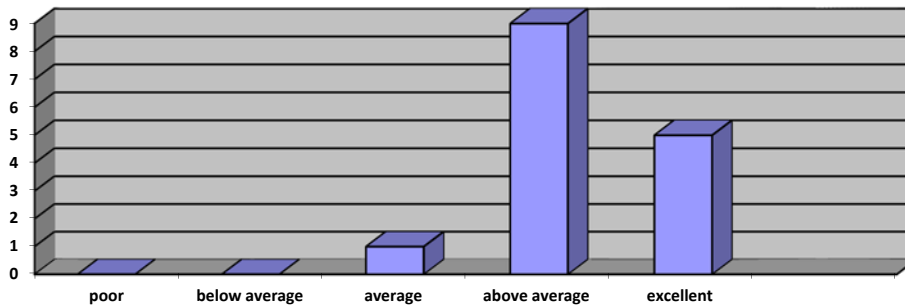

B. LECTURER EVALUATION FORM

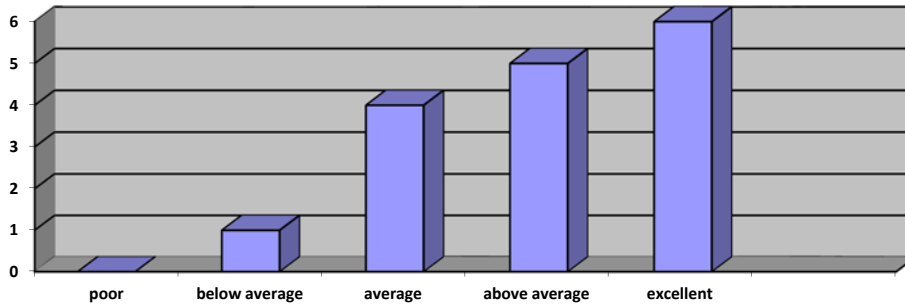

Prof. Helen Xanthaki

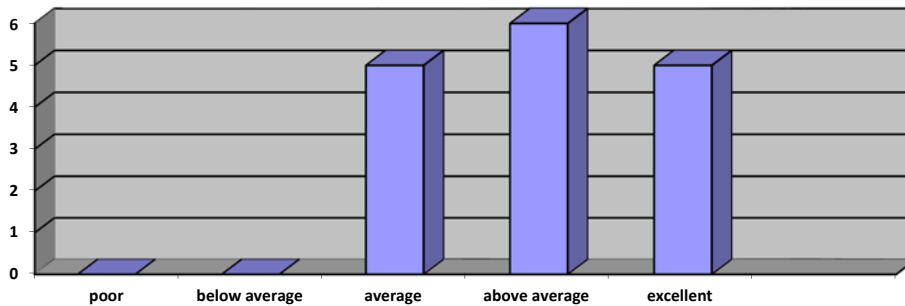

Dr Constantin Stefanou

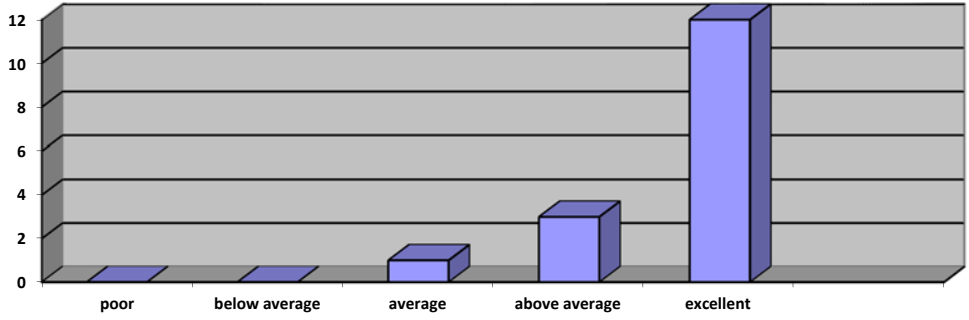

The OPC Team

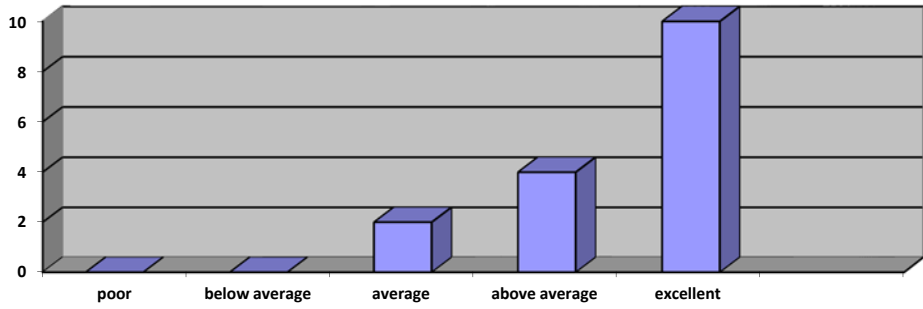

John Gilhooly

Daniel Greenberg

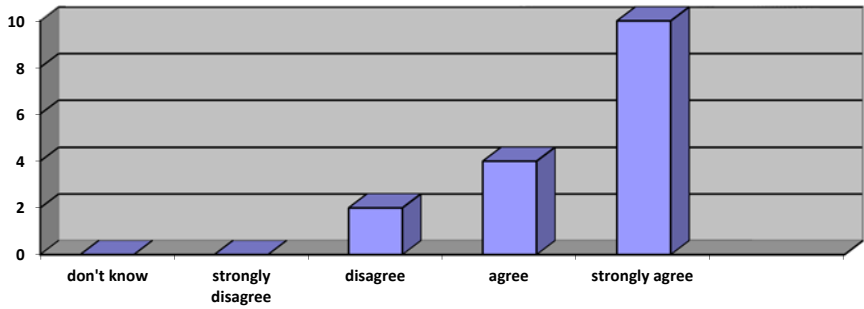

John Maloney

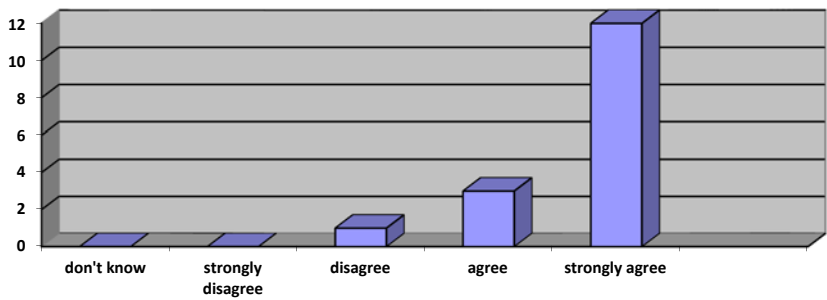

C. VISITS

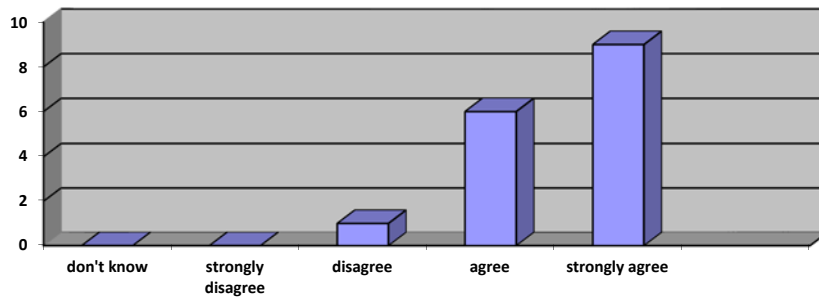

The visit to the Office of Parliamentary Counsel is a worthwhile activity

The exercise session by the Office of Parliamentary Counsel is a worthwhile activity

The visit to the Law Commission is a worthwhile activity

D. ADDITIONAL COMMENTS

- “The course was very enlightening and will enable me to enhance my drafting skills. I have profound respect for Prof. Helen Xanthaki who made sure that the course lived up to expectations. The entire team knows their stuff and therefore I strongly commend them for a job well done... Thank you team for the eye-opening engagement and thanks for the books!”
- “The course is well structured... Helen was born to teach...Great course!”
- “Great course, great lecturers, great experience!”
- “It is obvious that skill of legislative drafting can be developed through learning by doing. But this training changed my perception and opened my eyes to see my role as a drafter from different dimensions...Thank you all for your unlimited provision”
- “I enjoyed the course very much.. A lot to take home for me and this is one of the best professional courses I have attended”
- “A remarkable experience of sharing knowledge, learning new things, cultivating friendships and above all having a feeling that we can become a useful tool in the evolution of law”
- “This course is excellent. It can expand knowledge... Professors and lecturers are very kind and give very useful information”
- “I found this to be an excellent course...The lecturers were excellent, and they presented on very interesting and informative topics which are very relevant to my work... I really appreciate the wonderful work that Dr Xanthaki has done in organising the course, for her kindness and assistance, and for making us feel so welcome. Her lectures were outstanding... Thanks also to Dr Stefanou for his excellent lectures, from which I learnt a great deal!”
- “I have gained knowledge and insight and improved my skills in legislative drafting from this course”.

D. REFLECTION AND ACTION TO BE TAKEN

- This has been a highly successful course.

Professor Helen Xanthaki - 11 July 2015