17 May – IALS Library News Roundup

Quiet contemplation room now open

A quiet contemplation room is now open on the ground floor of the IALS building. Room G2 is a space designated for quiet contemplation, reflection, meditation, or prayer.

The room is not bookable, as it is a space where anyone can drop in when they need. Please ask the ground floor reception staff for directions to the room.

E-book access expanded with new Hart collection

We have added the 2022 Hart e-book collection to IALS Library, so you now have access to more e-books than ever! The 2022 collection includes 114 titles, and we already have the Hart 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 e-book collections.

These e-books are available to all IALS Library academic members, whether you are onsite or want to access them remotely. Find the Hart e-book collection from the IALS Law Databases page, or find individual e-books listed in our Library catalogue.

Spring bank holiday opening hours

IALS Library will be open on the spring bank holiday, Monday 29th May, between 10am and 8.30pm.
