The working party acted in close collaboration with a parallel working group of the Heads of Polytechnic Law Schools under the chairmanship of Mr Penry Oliver, although the two groups produced separate reports. The CHULS report was published in 1984 under the title Law as an Academic Discipline: a response to the Leverhulme Report and the UGC letter on a strategy for Higher Education into the 1990's.

Professor Twining was also engaged in preparing a similar response on behalf of the Board of Studies in Laws (University of London), and some papers relating to that report will be found mixed in with the CHULS papers.
