SLSA 4: Papers Relating to the Response of SLSA to the ESRC Review of Socio-Legal Studies, 1993

Extent and form: 1 folder

Administrative background: in 1993 the Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC) undertook a review of the current state of and future prospects for socio-legal studies in Britain. As part of this review, a seminar was held in April 1993 to discuss socio-legal studies. A paper was presented at the review on behalf of SLSA, written by Hazel Genn and Martin Partington, the then past and present Chairs of SLSA respectively.

Scope and content: this file contains drafts of the paper, the final version, supporting documentation and correspondence.

Access: open

Related material: some related correspondence will also be found in SLSA 3/2.

SLSA 5: Papers and Proceedings of Annual Conferences and Postgraduate Conferences, 1993-2017

Extent and form: 24 folders

Administrative background: the first annual conference of the SLSA was held in Bristol in 1990.

Scope and content: between 1993 and 1997 a separate conference file was created for each conference. It is unclear if this practice was continued. The remainder of this series has been assembled from conference material deposited by various Executive Committee members.

Access: published material open. Remainder open 20 years after last date on file. Closed items are designated in red.

Immediate source of acquisition: SLSA 5/1-SLSA 5/4 were transferred by Martin Partington. The remaining items have been deposited by various Executive Committee members and have been collated into a single series to provide a run of conference papers.

Related material: papers relating to the 1990 conference, and to those held in Sheffield in 1991 and at Keele University in 1992, will be found in the general correspondence files at SLSA 3/1-2. A small amount of correspondence relating to conferences from 1993 will also be found in the general correspondence files at SLSA 3/3-5. See SLSA 11 for planning papers for one day conferences.

SLSA 6: Socio-Legal Newsletter, 1989-2010, 2016

Extent and form: 61 newsletters

Administrative background: the first two newsletters were the result of a joint initiative by the Socio-Legal Group (later SLSA) and the Centre for Socio-Legal Studies at Oxford University. The main purpose was to link people teaching and carrying out research in socio-legal studies throughout Britain and abroad. In 1990 the newly formed SLSA took over financing and editorship.

Access: open

Related material: correspondence relating to the newsletter is at SLSA 3.

Related material held elsewhere: from 2002 the Newsletter is available on the SLSA website here: <https://www.slsa.ac.uk/index.php/newsletter#archive> .

SLSA 7: SLSA Directory, 1995-2004

Extent and form: 9 volumes

Scope and content: the Directories were compiled from forms returned by SLSA members and listed members alphabetically under institutional affiliation. Information included research interests, teaching interests, job titles and previous posts. In addition, they contain a list of the Executive Committee members, a list of past and present officers of the Association, the Constitution and the Statement of Ethical Practice.

The Directories were produced from 1995 to 2006 and were replaced by the online Directory in 2007.

Access: open

Related material: information relating to earlier membership lists will be found in the general correspondence files at SLSA 3, as will material relating to the compilation and publishing of the directory. The Socio-Legal Research Directory (SLSA 8), records “socio-legal research and interests within the UK.

SLSA 15 Executive Committee papers, collated by Nick Wikeley, 1994-1997

Extent and form: 4 folders

Scope and contents: papers received by Prof Nick Wikeley as a member of the Executive Committee, including minutes and agendas as well as general correspondence. Prof Wikeley stood down from the Committee at the beginning of 1997.

System of arrangement: material was received as a single set of papers which were in rough chronological order according to year. For ease of use, this has been split into years during cataloguing, whilst retaining the original order. Some documents are not dated and the order in which they are presented is the primary indicator of date and context.

Access: open

Related material: Executive Committee Minutes are also found at SLSA 1, SLSA 14, and SLSA 16.
